Aims of Part-time English

- Effective communication in your professional, academic or social life
- Increased confidence and fluency
- Practical and relevant language for living and working in London

Content

The courses offer practical and relevant language for students who have an immediate need for English in their life in London. The content of the lessons focuses on reviewing and extending the various language areas such as grammar, vocabulary, listening, reading, writing, speaking and pronunciation, building confidence and fluency through continual practice of the language.

Some attention is paid to students' reading and writing skills where appropriate but the emphasis is on developing their listening and speaking abilities through a variety of classroom activities. Typical areas of language include; travelling, socialising, formal and informal meetings and telephoning. The course rapidly progresses through relevant language areas and topics are chosen of interest to the students in the group.

Study Centres

The France King Study Centre offers the opportunity for extra study where our assistants will help you to learn independently and really profit from your time at Frances King. Facilities include:

- The Internet
- Videos which students can watch using machines equipped with a subtitle facility
- A variety of grammar, text and reference materials
- A large selection of graded readers and 'talking' books (readers with cassettes)
- A wide range of listening and pronunciation practice materials
- A large collection of dictionaries and language reference books
