Aims of Semester/Academic Year

- A flexible programme allowing you to study many different courses at an economical price.
- Increased confidence, fluency and accuracy and the opportunity to take internationally recognised examinations.
- Regular progress meetings with your tutor, and, for students interested in going on to university, the services of our University Placement service.

Location of Semester/Academic Year

This course is held all year round at our Kensington schools. You will be placed on your first day after your entry test and needs analysis.

Content

Students can choose from the following modules:

General English: development of language and communication skills

Extra Conversation: focus on oral fluency and self-expression

Pre-IELTS and Academic English: prepares students for success at university and provides the academic skills needed for taking examinations

Examination Preparation courses: (IELTS, TOEFL or Cambridge) – Familiarisation with all aspects of the examination

If you require more information on any of these areas of studies please contact us at the address below.
