Content

IELTS: Thorough preparation for the examination: essay writing, fluent and accurate speaking, describing and interpreting graphs and charts and practice in reading and listening skills. You will also learn specific strategies to improve your examination performance, with comprehensive examination practice and feedback from your teacher. You can take the examination in the week following the end of your course.

Academic English: You will learn the language skills required for academic study, such as summarising lectures, note-taking skills, essay writing, debating techniques, carrying out research and presenting data and using the Internet where appropriate. Students are encouraged to discover the learning strategies that suit them best, so that they can learn more effectively.

Study Centre

The Frances King Study Centre offers you the opportunity for extra study where you can learn independently and really profit from your time at Frances King. Facilities include:

- The Internet
- A variety of grammar, text and reference materials
- A large selection of graded readers and 'talking' books (readers with cassettes)
- A wide range of listening and pronunciation practice materials
- A large collection of dictionaries and language reference books
- Daily newspapers and magazines
