Course Content

These are completely tailor-made programmes, in which your teachers will work closely with you to identify your needs and objectives. A One-to-One programme will quickly improve your general or specialised English. We cater for many professional areas, including marketing, finance, law and sales. We can help you to prepare for business presentations, negotiations or meetings, and develop key skills such as telephoning, business correspondence and report writing. You can also prepare for examinations, such as IELTS, TOEFL, TOEIC, BEC or TOLES. The timetable, course length and starting dates are by arrangement.

These courses are particularly suitable for busy professional people and others who need to maximise their learning and improve their communication skills as quickly as possible.

Course objectives and the course content are agreed at the beginning of the course and vary according to your specific training needs. We will match you with a suitable trainer with a proven record of helping language learners achieve success.

To help us to prepare for your course, our trainers find out as much information about you as possible with a language test and needs analysis questionnaire before you arrive.

We also ask you to send us information about your job and the organisation you work for. In addition, we ask you to bring as many documents related to your work as possible, for example your company reports, written correspondence (e-mails, letters etc that you have written) brochures and literature in English. This will ensure that the course is relevant to your everyday business needs.

Courses are flexible and you may choose the number of hours you wish to study; it is therefore also a suitable option if you are living in London and wish to study for only a few hours a week on a regular basis.

Alternatively, with our Internet-based programme, with KingsLanguage.com we can provide occasional language support or an intensive programme.
