Course content

This course offers practical and relevant language skills if you have an immediate need for English. Following needs analysis, you will be placed in a group according to your level and individual requirements. The content of the lessons focuses on reviewing and extending the various language areas such as grammar, vocabulary, listening, reading, writing, speaking and pronunciation, building confidence and fluency through continual practice of the language.

Attention is also paid to reading and writing skills where appropriate but the emphasis is on developing listening and speaking abilities through a variety of classroom activities. Typical areas of language include, travelling, socialising, formal and informal meetings and telephoning. Attention to your individual needs is continued during the course through personal interviews with your teacher.

Location of 50+ Courses

This course is held in our Kensington schools.

Study Centre

The Frances King Study Centre offers you the opportunity for extra study and our assistants will help you to learn independently and maximise your time at Frances King. Facilities include:

- A variety of grammar, text and reference materials
- A wide range of listening and pronunciation practice materials
- A large collection of dictionaries and language reference books
